

BRAND NEW RELEASE FROM THE LEADER IN WEST COAST BLUES

DELTA GROOVE PRODUCTIONS

LYNWOOD SLIM "Last Call"

Lynwood Slim followed the well-trodden path of many of the bluesmen of his generation: early interest in another instrument (in his case, trumpet), before having his head spun around by the sounds of Little Walter, Jimmy Reed, and other Chicago-based blues legends while in his early teens. His long and winding blues road has included lengthy stays in Minneapolis and Chicago, where he soaked up the true blues sounds and established a name for himself as a double threat on both vocals and harmonica.

First hand experience and apprenticeship under veteran blues masters such as multi-instrumentalist Leonard "Baby Doo" Caston and harmonica giant Big Walter Horton served Slim well as he mastered the subtleties of tone and phrasing, and developed his own distinctive voice in the blues.

Slim's mastery of blues harmonica – both the "little harp" and the more difficult chromatic – is second to none. He is also one of the finest blues vocalists of his generation. Spanning well over two decades and dozens of releases, Slim's recording career as a band leader and featured front man include more 'guest appearances' on the releases of others than can easily be tallied. Couple his many years of performing and recording experience with a life that's seen more ups and downs and ins and outs than the next three bluesmen of his generation combined, and you've got one of the most complete and appealing bluesmen in the business today: Lynwood Slim.

"Last Call" is Lynwood Slim's 5th release and his finest to date! The album exhibits Slim's knack for writing strong and catchy original lyrics and his deep love of swinging jazz. Lynwood is a widely respected and in demand musician that has been a featured artist on recordings by Junior Watson, Kid Ramos, Dave Specter, R.L. Burnside, Nick Moss & the Flip Tops, Alex Schultz and more...

Kirk "Eli" Fletcher - 2005-06 Blues Music Award Nominee for "Guitar Instrumentalist of the Year" with two previous recordings under his own name and featured on other releases by the Fabulous Thunderbirds, Mannish Boys, Hollywood Blue Flames, Kim Wilson & James Harman Band.
